1	Rules of debate at meetings
а	Motions of the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
b	A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
С	A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
d	If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
e	An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
f	If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
g	An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
h	A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
i	If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.
j	Subject to standing order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
k	One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
I	A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
m	The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of the debate.
n	Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right to reply wither at the end of debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
0	 Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except: i. To speak on an amendment moved by another councillor ii. To move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke.

	iii. To make a point of orderiv. To give a personal explanation; orv. In exercise of a right of reply p	During the debate of a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order, which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by.
q	A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.
r	 When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except: To amend the motion; To proceed to the next business; To adjourn the debate; To put the motion to a vote; To ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting; To refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration; To exclude the public and press; To adjourn the meeting; or To suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory requirements
S	Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.
t	Excluding motions moved understanding 1(r) above, the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 2 minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.
2	Disorderly conduct at meetings
а	No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
b	If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
C	If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3	Meetings generally
	Full Council meetings
	Committee meetings
	Sub-committee meetings

	Houghton Parish Council – Standing Orders
a	If the draft minutes of a preceding meeting have been served on councillors with the agenda to attend the meeting at which they are due to be approved for accuracy, they shall be taken as read.
b	There shall be no discussion about the draft minutes of a preceding meeting except in relation to their accuracy. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes shall be moved in accordance with standing order 10(a)(i).
С	The accuracy of draft minutes, including any amendment(s) made to them, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
d	If the chairman of the meeting does not consider the minutes to be an accurate record of the meeting to which they relate, he shall sign the minutes and include a paragraph in the following terms or to the same effect: "The chairman of this meeting does not believe that the minutes of the meeting of the Houghton Parish Council held on [date] in respect of () were a correct record but his view was not upheld by the meeting and the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the proceedings."
e	If the council's gross annual income or expenditure (whichever is higher) does not exceed £25,000, it shall publish draft minutes on a website which is publicly accessible and free of charge not later than one month after the meeting has taken place.
f	Subject to the publication of draft minutes in accordance with standing order 12(e) and standing order 20(a) and following a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of a meeting, the draft minutes or recordings of the meeting for which approved minutes exist shall be destroyed.
13	Code of Conduct and dispensations See also standing order 3(u).
а	All councillors and non-councillors with voting rights shall observe the code of conduct adopted by the council.
b	Unless he has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he has a disclosable pecuniary interest. He may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he had the interest.
С	Unless he has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he has another interest if so required by the council's code of conduct. He may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he had the interest.
